'Queen of Metals' Is Club Subject

Most Interesting Talk on Silver
Given by Fred
Cooper.

'STERLING' IS EXPLAINED

At the regular meeting of the Woman's Community Club of Narberth on Tuesday afternoon, Fred J. Cooper, Philadelphia jeweler and silversmith, gave a most interesting history of silver, the "queen of the metals," tracing its history from Greek and Roman times through the centuries to modern days.

The word "sterling," the speaker pointed out, originated as slang, being derived from "Easterlings," German peddlers who brought silver of the finest quality to England.

Back in the year 1327 on March 28, King Edward granted a charter to the Goldsmiths' Guild of London to "pass" on all silver and gold in the realm. At that time 'prentices signed a contract for eight years' service and while learning the trade they bound themselves not to marry, be absent from work without the master's consent or to conduct themselves in a roisterous fashion. The master in turn fed and clothed them, allowing them to sleep with the watch dogs under the bench at which they worked during the day.

"Hall marking" started with the Guild, every year the letter being changed on the birthday of St. Dunstan. To this day the Guild tests the coins of the realm.

Very ornate silver utensils were the fashion during the sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, the plainer and often more graceful designs being introduced by the Puritans. The reason our knives have rounded ends is because Richelieu's guests stabbed each other so often that he required all guests to bring only rounded knives.

Registration Day Set For Spring Primaries

Tuesday and Wednesday, March 18 and 19, will be the only days for Narberth residents who are not enrolled on the books of the Registry Assessors to register in order to be able to vote at the Spring Primaries. This applies also to residents whose address has changed since the last election.

The hours for registration are 10 A. M. to 3 P. M., and 7 to 10 P. M. The Registry Assessors are Emma Mueller, District No. 1, Elm Hall; Ella R. Murray, District No. 2, Cook Brothers; Mary M. Livingston, District No. 3, Scout House.

Several interesting elections are looked for this year, so it behooves all voters in the Borough who are not registered or who are not correctly registered to visit the Assessors on the 18th or 19th.

A June Bride

Miss Phoebe Hante Eberhard, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harry M. Eberhard, of North Bowman Avenue, Merion, whose marriage to Mr. Wendell B. Steward, of Cynwyd, will take place in June.

Narberth Businesses Listed in This Issue

A list of 150 business firms and professional men is printed in this issue of "Our Town." It is a remarkable picture of the scope and completeness of the local business section.

The list, published on the second and third pages of this issue, is being run in behalf of the local business men at the expense of "Our Town" for the information of Narberth residents. The names have been set to fill two exact pages, so that the section may be clipped and kept for reference.

As is inevitable in any comprehensive list of this kind, a number of errors and omissions may be looked for. In fact, the day before the list went to press the editor found that one of the oldest business firms in town had been omitted altogether.

Business men and subscribers can help materially by noticing errors and omissions and calling them to our attention early next week. We will make note of these corrections in the next issue, so that readers may correct the index.

The Narberth Board of Trade has approved a plan to print such a list weekly. This will be commercial advertising, instead of a news feature, as is the list this week. The directory will be made a permanent feature if enough merchants co-operate to assure a comprehensive and valuable list.

Trade Body to Meet Monday

Announcement was made this week that the regular March meeting of the Narberth Board of Trade will be held Monday evening at about 8 o'clock, in the Women's Community Club Room of Elm Hall.

It is expected reports will be made by the newly-constituted publicity committee on plans for a continuing directory of Narberth business and professional men and women.

On Haverford News

Charles M. Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Henry, of Meeting House Lane, Narberth, and a Junior at Haverford College, has just been chosen a news editor of the Haverford News, the students' weekly publication. Henry, a member of the college band and president of the Chemistry Club, joined the editorial board of the News last fall.

Bazaar the Seventeenth

The annual bazaar for the benefit of St. Margaret's School will be held in the school assembly room on Monday, March 17, from 9:30 A. M. until 5 P. M.

Win Over Chester Gives L. M. Crown

Second Consecutive League Title
Goes With Thirty-three
to Seven Victory.

TWENTIETH OF SEASON

Lower Merion High School is again champion of the Suburban A League in basketball. This achievement came to Coach Bill Anderson's sharpshooters last Friday night at Chester, when they downed the high school players of that city 33 to 7.

This game marked the twentieth consecutive victory for the Merionites, and after a week's rest they will finish their season tonight at Norristown, looking for an undefeated season.

All of the regulars contributed to the scoring column in the game with the Delaware countians, with the exception of Al Mandes, who contented himself with shutting out his opponent from the field.

Al Bonniwell scored thirteen points during the evening while his teammates, Warren Lockwood and John Pennypacker, were ringing up seven each. Al D'Amora accounted for four points and Jim Turner two.

Chester only scored two field goals during the melee, one coming in each half. The score at half time was 14 to 4.

Welcome New Principal

George Holly Gilbert, newly-appointed principal of the Lower Merion Senior High School, was the guest of honor and speaker at the monthly meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club Monday night.

Mr. Gilbert was introduced by J. Bedford Woolley, and spoke briefly to the members. After the meeting many of those present availed themselves of the opportunity to meet the new school official personally.

Get New Stamps

The new five-cent Air-mail stamps and stamped envelopes have been received by the Narberth Post Office, according to Postmaster J. B. Nesper, and are now on sale.

Attendance Increases at Health Centre

Twenty-eight Children Now Enrolled; Sixteen During February.

OPEN EACH WEDNESDAY

The Narberth Child Health Centre is growing just as fast as any normally healthy child might be expected to grow. The enrollment of twelve for January has now increased to twenty-eight. It is encouraging to note that at least two dozen mothers of young children have thus shown their appreciation of the educational advantages of the Centre.

Another boon to progress is the active interest shown by various organizations. While, through the Board of Health, Council has assumed the professional responsibility of the Centre, the Main Line Branch of the American Red Cross has provided the nurse and the Junior Red Cross is to defray the cost of the two scales now in use. The Woman's Community Club provides the rooms used, and the Welfare and Civic departments of the club have fostered benefits with substantial results.

The report given at the monthly meeting of the managers held Tuesday evening shows that of the sixteen new children enrolled during February, nine of them are under one year of age and seven others between the ages of one and six years.

At the four conferences held during the month, Dr. J. McKees Mitchell was in attendance four times; Miss Bessie Drane, the attending nurse, four times; Director Miss Rose Ehrenfeld, three times; Registrars Miss Constance Morris, four times, and Mrs. William Collins, three times. Social volunteer workers in attendance were Mrs. C. Arley Farmer, once; Mrs. Nelson Rowley, twice, and Mrs. L. W. Melcher, four times.

The Centre is open each Wednesday in the club room at Elm Hall from 2 to 3 P. M. All infants and children of pre-school age are welcome, the object being to "Keep well babies well."

Tax Penalty Increases

The penalty on unpaid borough property taxes now 8 per cent. will be increased to 9 per cent. after April first, according to word from Edwin P. Dold, Narberth Tax Collector. Mr. Dold also reminds delinquent taxpayers that liens will be filed with the County Commissioners at Norristown on May 1 on all properties on which the 1929 taxes remain unpaid at that date.

Mercury Runs Scale

Temperatures for the Main Line for the week of February 25 to March 2 inclusive, varied from seventy-six, the highest for February on record, to twenty-two degrees.

FORE AND AFT

Present and Coming Attractions in the Philadelphia Theatres.

Ethel Barrymore, foremost actress on the English-speaking stage, made her first appearance in Philadelphia in G. Martinez Sierra's "The Kingdom of God," translated by Helen and Marley Granville-Barker, which opened in the Lyric Theatre on Monday night. This impressive Spanish play will be acted for two weeks only. On Monday, March 17, Miss Barrymore will be seen in the second drama in her repertory, Lili Hatvany's "The Love Duel," adapted by Zoe Akins. There will be matinees on Wednesdays and Saturdays. The engagement positively is limited to four weeks and will not be extended.

"The Kingdom of God" is not religious in the general meaning of the word, nor is Sister Gracia, the role acted by Miss Barrymore, a nun. In this character the actress is seen in a part entirely unlike anything she hitherto has played. First she appears as the age of nineteen, a young, inexperienced girl; then at twenty-nine, wiser in the ways of the world, and finally as an old woman of seventy. Sierra is the author of over forty dramas. Burns Mantle selected "The Kingdom of God" as one of the best ten plays of last year in New York, where it was the inaugural production of Ethel Barrymore's own theatre.

It is not often that a stage version of a novel, especially a best seller, wins such unanimous praise as has been accorded to G. B. Stern's dramatization of "The Matriarch," now being presented by the Professional Players as the fifth of a series of artistic and worthwhile dramatic plays at the Adelphi Theatre. The interesting factor in the case is that the footlight adaptation of "The Matriarch" finds favor both with those who have read Miss Stern's regular novel, and those who are completely unfamiliar with the story.

"A Wonderful Night," which has repeated the historical success of Johann Strauss' gorgeous operetta, "Die Fledermaus," is the present occupant of the Shubert Theatre. A big revolving stage, which turns without break of action, permits the use of no less than seventeen scenes. Johann Strauss' music is today as beautiful, as full of sentiment, of love and longing as ever, and by contrast, present-day ragtime and jazz seems shoddy and cheap stuff indeed.

"The Chocolate Soldier," universally recognized as one of the most famous operettas ever written and which originally was produced in Philadelphia before going to New York for its sensational run in 1909, made a re-appearance in a 1930 edition at the Keith's Theatre for two weeks commencing Monday night. This marks the sixth of a series of reproductions of the greatest operettas which was inaugurated some weeks ago with the Victor Herbert Festival.

"The Criminal Code," a timely and absorbing play by Martin Flavin, opened Monday at the Forrest Theatre for an engagement of two weeks. Arthur Byron, distinguished star of the stage, heads the large cast which includes a notable group of players. It comes to Philadelphia at the conclusion of an engagement of one hundred and seventy-four performances at the National Theatre, New York, and is acclaimed as the outstanding play of the current Broadway season.

"Elizabeth and Essex" will be the seventh play to be presented under the auspices of the Professional Players at the Adelphi Theatre on April 14. The cast includes Thais Lawton, Vivienne Osborne, Verree Teasdale, Hught Buckler, Charles Francis, Wilfrid Seagram and Murry Kinnell.

The attraction opening Monday at the Chestnut will be "The Little Show," regarded by Broadway as the most diverting revue of its kind for years and, since leaving New York after a year's run, selling out its entire engagement in Boston, whence it now comes.

Now For Higher Honors

Lower Merion's smooth-working high school basketball team, having swept through the Suburban League with ease and dispatch, now faces the larger task of defeating the State scholastic leaders. If the undefeated champions of the suburbs can keep their record untarnished against stronger competition, it will be most gratifying to this community. But win, lose or retire, Coach Anderson and his boys can honorably rest on their present laurels. However, we would like to see them go out and achieve higher honors if for no other reason than to quiet rumors that team play is suffering because of individual ambitions.

It is our opinion that the team work is excellent. Take Warren Lockwood for one example. Last year he was second high scorer of his league. This year he has been a marked forward in every game played. What happened? The scoring attack was deflected slightly in the direction of John Pennypacker and the points rolled up faster than ever. Lockwood's individual record suffered, but the team gained immeasurably. Incidentally it is worthy to note, in figuring predictions, that outside competitors will not have had the same opportunity to solve this young man's style that has been the case with suburban contestants. He is likely to do very interesting work against strangers.

Backed by the defense bulwark of Turner, Mandes and D'Amora, the ball has been kept in opponents' territory most of the time, which also accounts largely for the more than one thousand points scored. In addition there is that ace, Bonniwell, ready to step into any position on the floor and be a threat. No question but Lower Merion has both an aggregation of champions and a champion aggregation.

Coach Bill Anderson hasn't been mentioned thus far; he has been saved for the last word. Isn't it significant that five of the six mainstays have been developed under his guidance? For the last three years he has produced either a champion or foremost contender. Can one imagine a poor-showing or disgruntled team under his leadership? No, it will be a five-man quintet that goes into future action, for every member realizes it is the one big chance to show the State just how fine a school and coach can be found in Lower Merion.

The Federation Report

The annual report of the Main Line Federation of Churches is now being mailed. The work of this organization, while it originated in Haverford, nearly twenty years ago, immediately extended to Ardmore, Bryn Mawr and Rosemont, and now the service covers all of Haverford Township, most of Merion and some of Radnor.

This organization is not a member of the Welfare Federation of Philadelphia, and therefore depends entirely for support on the residents of the district it serves.

Unemployment is creating serious social and financial problems, and is making an unusually heavy drain on finances of the Federation. You can relieve this situation by employing local people. Make repairs now—start spring work early.

From this report, one gets the very definite impression that there are services rendered that cannot be measured by statistics, that are much more fundamentally valuable than those represented by dollars and cents. Material things must be provided, but it is much better to help a family to provide these things for themselves and to retain or to gain self-respect and independence.

Business Looks Up

This week this news-magazine received more reports of real estate sales in this section than since the spring of 1929. Since realty is the basis, figuratively and literally, on which the commercial structure is built, increased market activity is an indication of better trade conditions generally. No boom times are expected, no inflation period is wanted; this is a conservative community that builds solidly. It is only natural to hope that commercial conditions improve, but it is not wise to desire a huge rise with later an inevitable fall. Prosperity is either on the way or just around the corner, seems to be a consensus of opinion. May we use more judgment in accepting it this time.

UNCLE CY'S COLUMN

Receipt

Your uncle begs to announce that he had the pleasure of taking that erudite contributor, Mr. Keighton, to luncheon last week and only regrets that Miss Evans was unable to accept his invitation for that particular day. However, Miss Evans' turn will come.

Going Dry

The debating between the desiccators and the humidifiers at the Lower Merion High School building must have been very entertaining if not enlightening.

My sentiments are gradually becoming dry. Why? Well, have not the "brewers' big horses" disappeared from the streets? Hence there is no more brew being delivered. Likewise, if we see no more horse-drawn cheese wagons, then no more cheese is being delivered.

It is also interesting to hear from the dries that the increase in the consumption of gingerale, charged water, and other soft drinks has definitely proved that Americans have forever turned away from firewater. It is equally interesting to see that people are drinking liquors, cordials, and other heavy European drinks from which alcohol has been removed such as vermouth, benedictine, cointreau and granadine.

Music

Aunt Cy oftens feigns or actually feels disgusted for me for going to sleep at symphony concerts. Last Monday night she was delightfully surprised. We attended the concert of the New York Symphony-Philharmonic Orchestra, under the leadership of Maestro Toscanini. Never have I felt the spirit of Wagner's Tannhauser Overture to such a degree. The music stole in under my skin, rippled with electric shocks along my nervous system, and left me mopping my palms with my pocket handkerchief. I wanted to rise and shout "Bravo! Encore!" along with the warmer-blooded Latins who did so. The treatment of Ravel was almost equally moving.

Why is it possible that we are so deaf to music at one time and so sensitively attuned to it at others? I believe the difference must be as much within the listener as with the players or the conductor.

Stupidity

Stupid people are my greatest worry in life, and viciously stupid ones are worst of all. This week a man with whom I have to do business set about to put something over on me; he thought that he had veiled his hand cleverly, but he was so feeble in his cerebration that his every move showed before it was made. It is a waste of time and energy to deal with vindictive and unscrupulous schemers. I should like to herd them all on a remote island where they might have every comfort and luxury and let them pass their declining years figuring ways to get the best of each other.

Vacation

It's about time that we start an argument about something. Summer resorts has always been a contentious subject among the nomadic suburbanites. The usual differences are between mountains and seashore or between New England and New Jersey. Lately we hear more about the great West and Europe.

It is my opinion that no one should travel in America till he is well traveled in Europe. My reason is that no American family has lived here longer than ten or fourteen generations and therefore we can find but little of our social background in the shifting and settling of our country. To know our own country we must know the country of our—however distant—emigration. If we come to understand the customs and attitudes of the foundation stock of that country we shall better appreciate the changes that our own development has wrought. For that reason I have always enjoyed extended visits to England, where I feel perfectly at home, and to France, Italy, Switzerland and other continental countries where much is to be learned.

Where to Go

THEATRES

ADELPHI—"The Matriarch." BROAD—"Power," last two days. Stratford-Upon-Avon Festival Company opens Monday in two weeks' program of Shakespearean plays.

CHESTNUT—Last two days of Fritz Leiber and Chicago Civic Shakespeare Society. Tonight, "Merchant of Venice," Saturday matinee, "As You Like It"; Saturday night, "Hamlet," "The Little Show" opens Monday.

FORREST—"The Criminal Code."

GARRICK—"Strange Interlude." Curtain at 5:30.

KEITH'S—"The Chocolate Soldier."

LYRIC—Ethel Barrymore in "The Kingdom of Heaven."

SHUBERT—"A Wonderful Night."

WALNUT—Bert Lytell in "Brothers."

MUSICAL EVENTS

Philadelphia Orchestra—Tullio Serafin, guest conductor. Vivaldi, Concerto in B minor; Haydn, Symphony in D; Pizzetti, Concerto dell' Estate; Strauss, Don Juan; Wagner, Wotan's Farewell and Magic Fire Music from "Die Walkure."

LOCAL MOVIES

ARDMORE—Today, "Wedding Rings;" tomorrow, "The Painted Angel;" Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Ronald Colman in "Condemned;" Thursday and Friday, Ruth Chatterton in "The Laughing Lady;" Saturday, "Woman Trap."

EGYPTIAN—Today and tomorrow, "The Return of Sherlock Holmes" with Clive Brooks; Monday and Tuesday, "Wise Girls;" Wednesday and Thursday, "Glorifying the American Girl;" Friday and Saturday, "Pointed Heels."

ANTHONY WAYNE—Today and tomorrow, "The Sap;" Monday and Tuesday, "Halfway to Heaven;" Wednesday and Thursday, John Barrymore in "Eternal Love;" Friday and Saturday, "Hot for Paris."

Lansdowne High School fell before Upper Darby Monday night by a 45 to 39 score. This boosts Lower Merion's stock just a little more. Not that it needed a boost, however.

New Sound System Wins Praise of Theatregoers

The Narberth Theatre was filled Monday evening with one of the largest crowds since it opened. The attendance, which continued large during the week, marked the inauguration of a new policy of better entertainment by the theatre's management, Messrs. Salasin and Fried. The new 1930 Vitaphone and Movietone Western Electric equipment and sound screen were acclaimed by the audience for giving a perfect sound performance of "Disraeli," the famed George Arliss "talkie."

"Charming Sinners," with Ruth Chatterton, was the feature last night. Scheduled today and tomorrow is "The Virginian," famed talking picture of the celebrated novel by Owen Wister, who is a resident of Bryn Mawr. In the cast are Gary Cooper, Walter Huston, Mary Brian and Richard Arlen.

Coming Monday and Tuesday are Victor McLaglen and El Brendel, stars of "The Cock-Eyed World," in "Hot for Paris." George Bancroft's stirring drama, "The Mighty," is scheduled for next Wednesday and Thursday.

Tailors to Banquet

The second annual banquet of the Main Line Tailors and Cleaners' Association will be held at the Brookline Square Club on Tuesday, March 11. Guests of honor and speakers will be Harry C. Bare, toastmaster; Hon. Fletcher W. Stites, W. Russell Green and Hon. Judge Eugene V. Alessandrini. The committee in charge is composed of the following: Harry Mongin, chairman, Cynwyd; Joseph Troncelliti, Bryn Mawr; Charles Hewit, Narberth; Philip Siman, Ardmore; F. Masciangelo, Wayne; Louis Kaplan, Ardmore, and Joseph C. Adelizzi, Narberth.

Boy Week Chairmen

The appointment of three town chairmen in general charge of Boy Week activities in their districts was confirmed at a meeting of the Main Line Boy Council on Tuesday night. The Rev. A. C. Kanzinger will serve as chairman for Ardmore, Walton M. Wentz for Narberth and Dr. Philip Bishop for Bryn Mawr. Plans are being formulated by the Council for Boy Week, which will be observed May 3 to 10.

Variety Marks 'Talkies' Playing at The Egyptian

Variety marks The Egyptian's talking pictures this week. Today and tomorrow Clive Brook is starring in "The Return of Sherlock Holmes," an exciting sleuth tale based on Conan Doyle's best, and tomorrow afternoon the beautiful and educational poem by Longfellow, "Evangeline," will be seen-heard, with Dolores Del Rio in the name part.

Next Monday and Tuesday the Cynwyd playhouse will present the comedy drama by Elliott and J. C. Nugent, which gained popularity on the stage as "Kempy." Under its "talkie" title of "Wise Girls," the story of suburban family life has the Nugents in its cast, and also Norma Lee and Roland Young.

"Disraeli," George Arliss' first talking picture, which has gained tremendous popularity everywhere, will appear at The Egyptian next Wednesday. By way of variety to "Disraeli's" English drama, "Glorifying the American Girl" will be seen-heard a la Ziegfeld, next Thursday.

"Pointed Heels," with William Powell (of Philo Vance) and "Four Feathers" fame) and Helen Kane (the boop-oop-dee-oop girl), is scheduled for next Friday and Saturday. Also coming soon at The Egyptian is "Hot for Paris," with El Brendel and Victor McLaglen.

Building Shows Increase

Forty-four building permits were issued in Lower Merion Township during the month of February, 1930, an increase of nine over last year. Twelve of the operations were in South Ardmore district, with the remainder scattered through the township.

Great Things Await Maroon Five If They Can Maintain Their Present Team Morale

By Robert McNally.

With Lower Merion definitely out of the Penn tournament on account of a league game which comes in the midst of tournament play, Coach William Anderson is making plans whereby his team may enter the State championships in March.

It is practically certain that the Maroon team will be invited to represent the suburban division in the State meets, and if they are allowed to accept by the school authorities they will start the first game the second week in March.

We have studied most of the strong teams in Eastern Pennsylvania this winter, and we have come to the conclusion that Bill Anderson has one of the strongest scholastic basketball teams in the United States. It took us some time to come to this conclusion, as we have considered the suburban competition to be under par this season, but we are now certain that the boys have the class and the goods.

Norristown, Lansdowne and Central have been the three teams which have offered the stiffest opposition to the Main Line team. None of these teams could push Anderson's present lineup to more than a good workout. As the suburban teams line up against each other they look good until they meet with the Maroon. Lansdowne has a first-class high school team, well above the average. So has West Chester and so did Norristown before the team was broken up through graduations. Yet when teams of this calibre line up against the momentous rush of the Main Liners they look quite ordinary.

There was a time after the middle of the season that this writer thought the Lower Merion five would crack, but they passed the stormy period without so much as a leak in the boat. The secret of it all seems to be the supreme confidence each player has in himself, and, better still, the confidence each has in his teammates.

If the Maroon does enter the State championships, they must be prepared to meet some terrific opposition. Allentown and Hazleton of the Eastern Pennsylvania League, Mahanoy City of the Anthracite League and Palmerston of the Lehigh Valley League are teams that are well trained and disciplined. They are more formidable than many better teams because they are tournament trained and can stand the long grind of tournament play better than teams which have been through situations which require many tough games over a short period of time.

The preliminary games will be played in Allentown, Easton or Philadelphia. The two teams winning in these games will go into the regional games to be played either in Wilkes-Barre or Philadelphia on March 22. The winner of this event will enter the finals on the 29th either in Pittsburgh or Philadelphia.

It will take a sturdy team to stand off the gauntlet of such terrific competition, but if the Lower Merion ensemble can keep a stiff upper lip and play the game as they know how to play it, they should win. On a good floor with competent officiating they will have to have a very bad off night to be defeated.

James Turner has developed into the best centre man in the suburbs. Warren Lockwood has good nights and bad nights, but he is always good for his share of points. His only weakness is his failure to utilize his teammates at certain times. If he could pass oftener he would get more opportunities to shoot in the open. Johnny Pennypacker is the most improved player in the league and to our notion stands out as the greatest all-around man in the suburbs potentially. Al Mandes is the best guard ever to wear the Maroon and White and Al D'Amora, though slow on a big floor, is a finished player and a fine shot. Alfred Bonniwell, newcomer from the city, is the most polished player of them all and is at his best when the going is most difficult. In addition to these outstanding players, Anderson has three first-class substitutes in Hughie Wynn, Henry Gane and Keith Parks.

Welfare Federation Names Representatives

The following were elected as representatives of the Welfare Federation to serve from 1930 to 1935, at the annual meeting Wednesday in the Social Service Building, Philadelphia:

Miss Constance Biddle, W. Curtis Bok, Rabbi William H. Fineshriber, Joseph Horn, Robert W. Lesley, Judge Edwin O. Lewis, the Rev. Alexander MacColl, George V. MacKinnon, W. W. Montgomery, Jr., Joshua Ash Pearson, J. Howard Pew, J. Willison Smith, Joseph N. Snellenburg, Herbert J. Tily, Alexander Van Ransselaer, Thomas Raeburn White, Dana G. How, Wayne L. Hopkins, Miss Anna B. Pratt, the Rev. Percy R. Stockman and Charles S. Pitcher.

Jay M. Kyle, campaign manager of the Welfare Federation, announced that 3.2 per cent. of the 137,320 contributors in the welfare campaign last fall gave 81.7 per cent. of the $3,358,000 fund now in hand, while 93.3 per cent. gave 13 per cent. of the money.

Jeddo-Highland Anthracite

NATURE WORKED WITH US

25,000,000 years ago the formation of the Pennsylvania Anthracite Coal beds began. The properties of these beds varied greatly—some being rich in carbon and low in waste matter; others lacking such desirable characteristics.

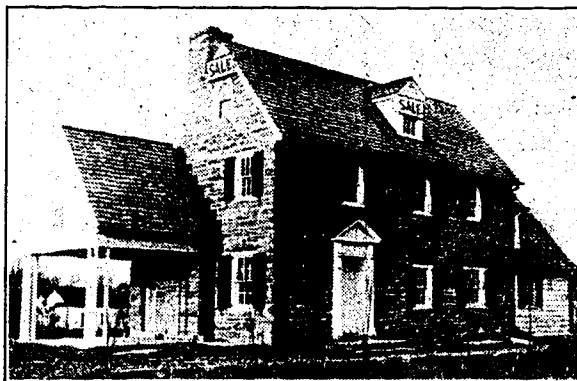

Nature favored Jeddo-Highland veins in this respect because no basin in the whole anthracite region contains coal with a greater natural purity. This inherent purity, coupled with the high Jeddo-Highland standard of preparation, assures heating satisfaction and economy to the greatest degree.

Junior High Loses Close One—In Tie For Lead

Lower Merion Junior High School lost a close battle to West Chester J. H. at the Armory in West Chester last Friday afternoon, 24 to 21. The Orange and Black blew two field goals and three foul shots during the last minute of play, and this inability to drop them in at a crucial moment caused their undoing.

This defeat leaves them tied for first place in the league and if the championship is decided it will necessitate a playoff.

This game was the first defeat for the local team in league competition this season. The record stands nine victories and one defeat.

The scoring during the game was rather divided among the players, Captain Harvey Shillingford leading with six points, Joe Leidy with five, Frank Talley scored five also, and Mike Ichavelli three.

If there is a playoff, it will take place some evening next week.

Mrs. Newman Describes Beauties of Glassware

The Junior Community Club held an interesting meeting on Thursday evening, February 27. Mrs. T. Somers Newman, of the Women's Club, spoke on the subject of "Glass." Mrs. Newman's power of describing the beauty of glass in its many fascinating forms filled her listeners with an enthusiasm for glassware surpassing any they had felt before. Especially interesting was the description of modern glass exhibited by all countries of the world at the Museum recently, recounted in a manner which pictured the beautiful colors and patterns of the glass most vividly.

The club accepted the resignation of Miss Mabel Kirkpatrick as program chairman, and learned of the appointment of Mrs. Ellsworth Clark to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Clark announced many interesting features planned for future meetings, and called a committee meeting of several members to discuss plans for entertainment and dramatics.

The next meeting will be Thursday, March 13, and new members are cordially invited to attend, at the club room in the rear of the fire house.

'Queen of Metals' Is Club Subject

The introduction of tea in England in 1658 and later the use of coffee and chocolate furnished much work for the silversmiths. Spoons were in demand as never before, also pots, pitchers and sugar bowls. Previous to that salt cellars, tankards and cups held first place, while later punch bowls were in favor.

Pure silver, Mr. Cooper pointed out, is soft. Sterling silver means an article is 925-1000ths silver and 75-

1000ths copper. The test for silver is made by acid on silver scrapped against jasper stone. Gold is tested in the same manner.

Paul Revere, of Boston, achieved fame in his lifetime as one of the foremost silversmiths of his day. The first coins of Massachusetts were made by him as well as one of the best punch bowls in the world. In addition he was a dentist and had a powder factory at Canton as well as a bell and cannon factory. Among his "jobs" were the brass and copper work on the U. S. Constitution; the copper dome on the old State House in Boston, and boiler parts for Fulton's steamboat.

Mr. Cooper brought a large number of pieces of silver with him and explained after his talk marks on various pieces of silver.

Tea was served by the hostess of the day, Mrs. Edward Larney.

All members are urged to attend the institute on March 18 at 10:30 and to bring a box luncheon. Nancy Byrd Turner will read some of her own poems.

The mothers-daughters' dinner will be Thursday, March 13.

Obstetrical Service New Phase of Community Health and Civic Association's Health Work

One of the foremost activities of the Community Health and Civic Association, as the name would indicate, is the health work. The following article, which outlines the health work of the association, is drawn from the annual report of the president of that organization.

The policies of the Health Service are guided by the Health Committee, with advisory assistance from a Medical Advisory Committee. The keen interest taken in the work by the members of our Health Committee is inspiring. In April, owing to the resignation of Miss Ruth Cushman, we started with a new Director of Health Service, Miss Rose M. Ehrenfeld, formerly an assistant director of Public Health Nursing of the American Red Cross in the mid-western area. The energy and ability which have been displayed by Miss Ehrenfeld in taking hold of our work is gratefully appreciated. Her attractive personality and her ready ease in addressing local and other audiences are important factors in our friendly co-operation with all other organizations in the community. Her grasp of our problems growing largely out of her previous wide experience in similar work, is a distinct factor in our successful functioning. We recognize Miss Ehrenfeld as a distinct asset.

A valuable addition to the work previously carried on by our visiting nurses has been the inauguration of a delivery service in connection with child birth. Previously we had performed both prenatal and postpartum service, but had taken no part in assisting in the actual delivery of the child. This new service means of course that nurses must be on hand any time of the day or night to answer urgent calls. This additional service is a valuable one to the community, and the extent to which it has grown in a comparatively few months indicates that it is destined to be widely appreciated.

During the latter part of the year our Health Committee has made arrangements to administer an additional health center, or what is popularly called a Well Baby Clinic, in the Borough of Narberth. The people of Narberth witnessing how valuable these health centers activities are in other parts of our territory, have wisely contributed to a fund which pays the expenses of installing and maintaining this Narberth Health Center.

Our Health Service comprises a nursing service covering bedside care in both maternity cases, and in other cases needing a nurse's attention, and a child health supervision carried on principally through the five health centers. The Visiting Nurse staff consists of the Director, Assistant Director as Field Supervisor, and eight staff nurses. At the Child Health Centers a physician and one of the staff nurses are in attendance. The nursing service experiences a healthy and gratifying growth from year to year.

The Health Service includes many activities of a general nature, covering the proper education and morale of the nursing staff; co-operative work with other Welfare Associations in our territory and attendance at conferences of National Welfare bodies; co-operation with the Public School Systems of Lower Merion and Haverford Townships in the effort to secure 100 per cent. physical preparedness for school entrance; attendance by the Director at numerous committee and convention meetings, including discussions before Women's Clubs, Parent and Teacher Associations, visiting nurse societies, etc.; and store window displays depicting nursing service, in connection with the campaign of the Welfare Federation.

Thrills Mark Fast College Sport Here

None Hurt as Haverford Teams
Wage First Championship Combat.

ELIGIBILITY PROTESTED

(As told in the Haverford News, college weekly, issue of February 17, 1930.) Skilled in their attack and showing a finesse that could come only from constant practice, Merion Hall's first tiddle-winks team invaded Founders last Monday night to defeat the up-campus dorms' team, 3-0, in the first of a series of challenge matches for the championship of the college.

Although the Founders team played under protest, claiming that all three Merion men were ineligible, the visitors clearly showed an all-around superiority. Their game was faster, and their handling of the tiddles in moments that counted characterized them as standing among the best proponents of the sport seen on the campus in recent years.

The playing of Captain Dempsey, of Merion, at left tiddle, was the feature of the matches. At one time, when Founders threatened to take the first match, his run of three put his squad well to the fore.

DeMott, sixteen-year-old center-tiddle of the Founders team, showed more adeptness with the tiddle-button than any other member of the squad. Captain Chadwick's and Logan's playing was sluggish.

Founders' protest, lodged before the game started, was based, Chadwick said, on the ground that all three members of the Merion team were ineligible according to scholastic requirements on which membership of other college athletic teams is based.

Merion will challenge other dormitory teams as soon as the Athletic committee decides the status of the team's members, the captain announced.

The lineup:

Merion.	Positions.	Founders.
Dempsey (c)	Left Tiddle	Logan
Saint	Center Tiddle	DeMott
Abbe	Right Tiddle	Chadwick (c)

Commission Termed Dilatory at Pencoyd Club Dinner

Criticism of the present Township Commissioners was made at the annual dinner of the Pencoyd Neighborhood Club last Monday by Toastmaster W. M. C. Edwards.

Mr. Edwards regretted that the present commissioners, since the activities of Peter C. Hess have been transferred to the tax office, have been dilatory. "When better police patrol was asked by this club recently it was thirty days before a reply, that did not mean anything, was received, he said. Last fall, when City Avenue was closed and traffic detoured by way of Glen Road, the toughest piece of road in the county, more than 8000 cars were actually counted that passed that way one fine Sunday and which made so much dust they almost choked the Eppley family living there. The reasonable request of the American Bridge Co., owners of the houses and among the largest taxpayers, for an application of oil to keep down the dust, was absolutely ignored.

Miss Elizabeth Jones Becomes Bride of Thomas Jackson on Saturday

The marriage of Miss M. Elizabeth Jones, daughter of Mrs. William J. Jones, of South Narberth Avenue, to Mr. Thomas W. Jackson, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson, of Oak Lane, took place in the Baptist Church of the Evangel on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock. The Reverend Robert E. Keighton, pastor of the Church, performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. William J. Jones, wore her going-away gown which was a princess model in eggshell crepe. She wore a hat of the same shade, and carried a bouquet of tea roses.

Miss Louise E. Jones, who was the only attendant to her sister, wore a princess model in the new print and a black hat. Her bouquet was of mixed flowers, snapdragons, sweet peas and orange flowers which matched the tones of her dress.

Mrs. Jones wore a blue crepe princess model trimmed with lace. Her bouquet was of yellow roses.

Mr. Paul Winters, of Oak Lane, served as best man, and the ushers were Mr. David Northrop, Mr. William J. Jones, Jr., brother of the bride, Mr. Richard Northrop, and Mr. John Simms Jones.

A reception followed the wedding in the alcove of the church.

After the wedding trip, Mr. Jackson and his bride will reside in Oak Lane.

Appropriate Idea, But—

To the Editor,
Our Town:

Fletcher Stites must have had his tongue in his cheek when he told us to acclaim the drink debaters at the Lower Merion School last Thursday evening, as that young man has been in enough tussles himself to recognize a good one when he comes across it.

The honest truth is the whole thing was a farce and that fact ought to be put on the record for the general benefit of the pressing problem.

Mrs. Dougherty might hit well with a woman's club, but she does not belong in a big ring. She's good to look at, and we're strong for her side, but her argument was no heavier than her pretty green dress.

Bill Roper was the forceful man of the evening, and he was stirred with a great sincerity. It appeared, however, that he was drawing altogether on personal impressions and gave no evidence of any particular study of the whole subject.

Mrs. Falmestock had nothing to say and she said it. This lady simply does not know what it is all about.

Dr. Chalfant apparently thought he was talking to his own dry friends and he did not bother at all to substantiate any of his shambling statements. Several times he got out of bounds completely, inviting severe rebukes from the numerous audience. He proved that there are other things besides liquor which can take away a man's reason.

The forum idea was excellent and the arrangement was fine. Praise is due those who staged it and it is not their fault that it was so disappointing. They had a right to expect their speakers were better than turned out to be the case. It shows you cannot always go by what the papers say.

All of which is the opinion of this one man who believes prohibition is a terrible thing, and who prays that muddled thinking will disappear from both sides, so that a sane settlement may soon be reached.

J. J. CABREY.

Flower Show March 24 at Commercial Museum

More than a million dollars' worth of flowers, plants, gardens, etc., the largest exhibit of its kind ever shown under one roof, in America, will be on display at the 1930 Annual Spring Flower Show to be held at the Commercial Museum, Thirty-fourth and Spruce Streets, March 24 to 29. Individual displays, which require from one to three years to prepare, cost, in many cases, upwards of $25,000.

In addition to the cash prizes which aggregate approximately $20,000, the show committee has authorized a special die for use in casting gold medals at the United States Mint.

Featured among the large displays this year is a collection of orchids, the most expensive flower grown, covering more than 2000 sq. feet of floor space. As usual, the roses will have a dominant place in the exhibit, with hundreds of outdoor varieties.

Officers of the Philadelphia Flower Show are James Boyd, president; John P. Habermehl, Vice-President; W. Atlee Burpee, Jr., Treasurer; B. B. Starkey, Secretary; E. J. Fancourt, Chairman.

'To Air-Minded'

Editor, "Our Town:"

To the air-minded men and women of Narberth who are thinking of taking up aviation as a business: Aviation has grown in the last five years into a billion dollar industry. "Hereby hangs a tale:" getting into aviation at this stage of its progress is similar to the person that had the foresight to grasp opportunities during the early stages of the automobile industry.

Aviation is a very technical pursuit. It must have trained men and women in order to get the desired results. A large per cent. of both men and women are taking up flying to be able to pilot their own planes, but everyone cannot become pilots.

There is only one pilot needed in a plane, except in the larger transport planes. While on the ground there are needed scores of men and women to keep that plane in the air in the proper condition.

If any of you readers have in your mind taking up aviation, or any of its numerous co-ordinating branches as a business, but you are not aware of the openings into which you may fit, as a cog in a large machine, there is a book, at this moment, resting in the Narberth Community Library, written by a very prominent man, who has been in aviation since it grew from a mere dream.

That man is Walter Hinton, the first man to pilot a seaplane across the Atlantic Ocean. In his book, "Opportunities in Aviation," he has pointed out how you can fit into aviation.

This book also tells you exactly what positions are available in the air, on the ground, and in offices, airports, in manufacturing, selling finished products, advertising in aircraft factories and airline transport companies.

It also tells how to obtain these various positions, what you must do in order to obtain the various positions desired, how to learn flying, and how to learn the business end.

A book like this can be the key to a position, a career, or even a fortune, and no man now in business or going into business can afford to miss it. (F. B. T.)

'Queen of Metals' Is Club Subject

Most Interesting Talk on Silver
Given by Fred
Cooper.

'STERLING' IS EXPLAINED

At the regular meeting of the Woman's Community Club of Narberth on Tuesday afternoon, Fred J. Cooper, Philadelphia jeweler and silversmith, gave a most interesting history of silver, the "queen of the metals," tracing its history from Greek and Roman times through the centuries to modern days.

The word "sterling," the speaker pointed out, originated as slang, being derived from "Easterlings," German peddlers who brought silver of the finest quality to England.

Back in the year 1327 on March 28, King Edward granted a charter to the Goldsmiths' Guild of London to "pass" on all silver and gold in the realm. At that time 'prentices signed a contract for eight years' service and while learning the trade they bound themselves not to marry, be absent from work without the master's consent or to conduct themselves in a roisterous fashion. The master in turn fed and clothed them, allowing them to sleep with the watch dogs under the bench at which they worked during the day.

"Hall marking" started with the Guild, every year the letter being changed on the birthday of St. Dunstan. To this day the Guild tests the coins of the realm.

Very ornate silver utensils were the fashion during the sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, the plainer and often more graceful designs being introduced by the Puritans. The reason our knives have rounded ends is because Richelieu's guests stabbed each other so often that he required all guests to bring only rounded knives.

Registration Day Set For Spring Primaries

Tuesday and Wednesday, March 18 and 19, will be the only days for Narberth residents who are not enrolled on the books of the Registry Assessors to register in order to be able to vote at the Spring Primaries. This applies also to residents whose address has changed since the last election.

The hours for registration are 10 A. M. to 3 P. M., and 7 to 10 P. M. The Registry Assessors are Emma Mueller, District No. 1, Elm Hall; Ella R. Murray, District No. 2, Cook Brothers; Mary M. Livingston, District No. 3, Scout House.

Several interesting elections are looked for this year, so it behooves all voters in the Borough who are not registered or who are not correctly registered to visit the Assessors on the 18th or 19th.

Narberth Businesses Listed in This Issue

A list of 150 business firms and professional men is printed in this issue of "Our Town." It is a remarkable picture of the scope and completeness of the local business section.

The list, published on the second and third pages of this issue, is being run in behalf of the local business men at the expense of "Our Town" for the information of Narberth residents. The names have been set to fill two exact pages, so that the section may be clipped and kept for reference.

As is inevitable in any comprehensive list of this kind, a number of errors and omissions may be looked for. In fact, the day before the list went to press the editor found that one of the oldest business firms in town had been omitted altogether.

Business men and subscribers can help materially by noticing errors and omissions and calling them to our attention early next week. We will make note of these corrections in the next issue, so that readers may correct the index.

The Narberth Board of Trade has approved a plan to print such a list weekly. This will be commercial advertising, instead of a news feature, as is the list this week. The directory will be made a permanent feature if enough merchants co-operate to assure a comprehensive and valuable list.

Trade Body to Meet Monday

Announcement was made this week that the regular March meeting of the Narberth Board of Trade will be held Monday evening at about 8 o'clock, in the Women's Community Club Room of Elm Hall.

It is expected reports will be made by the newly-constituted publicity committee on plans for a continuing directory of Narberth business and professional men and women.

Win Over Chester Gives L. M. Crown

Second Consecutive League Title
Goes With Thirty-three
to Seven Victory.

TWENTIETH OF SEASON

Lower Merion High School is again champion of the Suburban A League in basketball. This achievement came to Coach Bill Anderson's sharpshooters last Friday night at Chester, when they downed the high school players of that city 33 to 7.

This game marked the twentieth consecutive victory for the Merionites, and after a week's rest they will finish their season tonight at Norristown, looking for an undefeated season.

All of the regulars contributed to the scoring column in the game with the Delaware countians, with the exception of Al Mandes, who contented himself with shutting out his opponent from the field.

Al Bonniwell scored thirteen points during the evening while his teammates, Warren Lockwood and John Pennypacker, were ringing up seven each. Al D'Amora accounted for four points and Jim Turner two.

Chester only scored two field goals during the melee, one coming in each half. The score at half time was 14 to 4.

Welcome New Principal

George Holly Gilbert, newly-appointed principal of the Lower Merion Senior High School, was the guest of honor and speaker at the monthly meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club Monday night.

Mr. Gilbert was introduced by J. Bedford Woolley, and spoke briefly to the members. After the meeting many of those present availed themselves of the opportunity to meet the new school official personally.

Attendance Increases at Health Centre

Twenty-eight Children Now Enrolled; Sixteen During February.

OPEN EACH WEDNESDAY

The Narberth Child Health Centre is growing just as fast as any normally healthy child might be expected to grow. The enrollment of twelve for January has now increased to twenty-eight. It is encouraging to note that at least two dozen mothers of young children have thus shown their appreciation of the educational advantages of the Centre.

Another boon to progress is the active interest shown by various organizations. While, through the Board of Health, Council has assumed the professional responsibility of the Centre, the Main Line Branch of the American Red Cross has provided the nurse and the Junior Red Cross is to defray the cost of the two scales now in use. The Woman's Community Club provides the rooms used, and the Welfare and Civic departments of the club have fostered benefits with substantial results.

The report given at the monthly meeting of the managers held Tuesday evening shows that of the sixteen new children enrolled during February, nine of them are under one year of age and seven others between the ages of one and six years.

At the four conferences held during the month, Dr. J. McKees Mitchell was in attendance four times; Miss Bessie Drane, the attending nurse, four times; Director Miss Rose Ehrenfeld, three times; Registrars Miss Constance Morris, four times, and Mrs. William Collins, three times. Social volunteer workers in attendance were Mrs. C. Arley Farmer, once; Mrs. Nelson Rowley, twice, and Mrs. L. W. Melcher, four times.

The Centre is open each Wednesday in the club room at Elm Hall from 2 to 3 P. M. All infants and children of pre-school age are welcome, the object being to "Keep well babies well."

Tax Penalty Increases

The penalty on unpaid borough property taxes now 8 per cent. will be increased to 9 per cent. after April first, according to word from Edwin P. Dold, Narberth Tax Collector. Mr. Dold also reminds delinquent taxpayers that liens will be filed with the County Commissioners at Norristown on May 1 on all properties on which the 1929 taxes remain unpaid at that date.

Mercury Runs Scale

Temperatures for the Main Line for the week of February 25 to March 2 inclusive, varied from seventy-six, the highest for February on record, to twenty-two degrees.

FORE AND AFT

Present and Coming Attractions in the Philadelphia Theatres.

Ethel Barrymore, foremost actress on the English-speaking stage, made her first appearance in Philadelphia in G. Martinez Sierra's "The Kingdom of God," translated by Helen and Marley Granville-Barker, which opened in the Lyric Theatre on Monday night. This impressive Spanish play will be acted for two weeks only. On Monday, March 17, Miss Barrymore will be seen in the second drama in her repertory, Lili Hatvany's "The Love Duel," adapted by Zoe Akins. There will be matinees on Wednesdays and Saturdays. The engagement positively is limited to four weeks and will not be extended.

"The Kingdom of God" is not religious in the general meaning of the word, nor is Sister Gracia, the role acted by Miss Barrymore, a nun. In this character the actress is seen in a part entirely unlike anything she hitherto has played. First she appears as the age of nineteen, a young, inexperienced girl; then at twenty-nine, wiser in the ways of the world, and finally as an old woman of seventy. Sierra is the author of over forty dramas. Burns Mantle selected "The Kingdom of God" as one of the best ten plays of last year in New York, where it was the inaugural production of Ethel Barrymore's own theatre.

It is not often that a stage version of a novel, especially a best seller, wins such unanimous praise as has been accorded to G. B. Stern's dramatization of "The Matriarch," now being presented by the Professional Players as the fifth of a series of artistic and worthwhile dramatic plays at the Adelphi Theatre. The interesting factor in the case is that the footlight adaptation of "The Matriarch" finds favor both with those who have read Miss Stern's regular novel, and those who are completely unfamiliar with the story.

"A Wonderful Night," which has repeated the historical success of Johann Strauss' gorgeous operetta, "Die Fledermaus," is the present occupant of the Shubert Theatre. A big revolving stage, which turns without break of action, permits the use of no less than seventeen scenes. Johann Strauss' music is today as beautiful, as full of sentiment, of love and longing as ever, and by contrast, present-day ragtime and jazz seems shoddy and cheap stuff indeed.

"The Chocolate Soldier," universally recognized as one of the most famous operettas ever written and which originally was produced in Philadelphia before going to New York for its sensational run in 1909, made a re-appearance in a 1930 edition at the Keith's Theatre for two weeks commencing Monday night. This marks the sixth of a series of reproductions of the greatest operettas which was inaugurated some weeks ago with the Victor Herbert Festival.

"The Criminal Code," a timely and absorbing play by Martin Flavin, opened Monday at the Forrest Theatre for an engagement of two weeks. Arthur Byron, distinguished star of the stage, heads the large cast which includes a notable group of players. It comes to Philadelphia at the conclusion of an engagement of one hundred and seventy-four performances at the National Theatre, New York, and is acclaimed as the outstanding play of the current Broadway season.

"Elizabeth and Essex" will be the seventh play to be presented under the auspices of the Professional Players at the Adelphi Theatre on April 14. The cast includes Thais Lawton, Vivienne Osborne, Verree Teasdale, Hught Buckler, Charles Francis, Wilfrid Seagram and Murry Kinnell.

The attraction opening Monday at the Chestnut will be "The Little Show," regarded by Broadway as the most diverting revue of its kind for years and, since leaving New York after a year's run, selling out its entire engagement in Boston, whence it now comes.

Now For Higher Honors

Lower Merion's smooth-working high school basketball team, having swept through the Suburban League with ease and dispatch, now faces the larger task of defeating the State scholastic leaders. If the undefeated champions of the suburbs can keep their record untarnished against stronger competition, it will be most gratifying to this community. But win, lose or retire, Coach Anderson and his boys can honorably rest on their present laurels. However, we would like to see them go out and achieve higher honors if for no other reason than to quiet rumors that team play is suffering because of individual ambitions.

It is our opinion that the team work is excellent. Take Warren Lockwood for one example. Last year he was second high scorer of his league. This year he has been a marked forward in every game played. What happened? The scoring attack was deflected slightly in the direction of John Pennypacker and the points rolled up faster than ever. Lockwood's individual record suffered, but the team gained immeasurably. Incidentally it is worthy to note, in figuring predictions, that outside competitors will not have had the same opportunity to solve this young man's style that has been the case with suburban contestants. He is likely to do very interesting work against strangers.

Backed by the defense bulwark of Turner, Mandes and D'Amora, the ball has been kept in opponents' territory most of the time, which also accounts largely for the more than one thousand points scored. In addition there is that ace, Bonniwell, ready to step into any position on the floor and be a threat. No question but Lower Merion has both an aggregation of champions and a champion aggregation.

Coach Bill Anderson hasn't been mentioned thus far; he has been saved for the last word. Isn't it significant that five of the six mainstays have been developed under his guidance? For the last three years he has produced either a champion or foremost contender. Can one imagine a poor-showing or disgruntled team under his leadership? No, it will be a five-man quintet that goes into future action, for every member realizes it is the one big chance to show the State just how fine a school and coach can be found in Lower Merion.

The Federation Report

The annual report of the Main Line Federation of Churches is now being mailed. The work of this organization, while it originated in Haverford, nearly twenty years ago, immediately extended to Ardmore, Bryn Mawr and Rosemont, and now the service covers all of Haverford Township, most of Merion and some of Radnor.

This organization is not a member of the Welfare Federation of Philadelphia, and therefore depends entirely for support on the residents of the district it serves.

Unemployment is creating serious social and financial problems, and is making an unusually heavy drain on finances of the Federation. You can relieve this situation by employing local people. Make repairs now—start spring work early.

From this report, one gets the very definite impression that there are services rendered that cannot be measured by statistics, that are much more fundamentally valuable than those represented by dollars and cents. Material things must be provided, but it is much better to help a family to provide these things for themselves and to retain or to gain self-respect and independence.

Business Looks Up

This week this news-magazine received more reports of real estate sales in this section than since the spring of 1929. Since realty is the basis, figuratively and literally, on which the commercial structure is built, increased market activity is an indication of better trade conditions generally. No boom times are expected, no inflation period is wanted; this is a conservative community that builds solidly. It is only natural to hope that commercial conditions improve, but it is not wise to desire a huge rise with later an inevitable fall. Prosperity is either on the way or just around the corner, seems to be a consensus of opinion. May we use more judgment in accepting it this time.

UNCLE CY'S COLUMN

Receipt

Your uncle begs to announce that he had the pleasure of taking that erudite contributor, Mr. Keighton, to luncheon last week and only regrets that Miss Evans was unable to accept his invitation for that particular day. However, Miss Evans' turn will come.

Going Dry

The debating between the desiccators and the humidifiers at the Lower Merion High School building must have been very entertaining if not enlightening.

My sentiments are gradually becoming dry. Why? Well, have not the "brewers' big horses" disappeared from the streets? Hence there is no more brew being delivered. Likewise, if we see no more horse-drawn cheese wagons, then no more cheese is being delivered.

It is also interesting to hear from the dries that the increase in the consumption of gingerale, charged water, and other soft drinks has definitely proved that Americans have forever turned away from firewater. It is equally interesting to see that people are drinking liquors, cordials, and other heavy European drinks from which alcohol has been removed such as vermouth, benedictine, cointreau and granadine.

Music

Aunt Cy oftens feigns or actually feels disgusted for me for going to sleep at symphony concerts. Last Monday night she was delightfully surprised. We attended the concert of the New York Symphony-Philharmonic Orchestra, under the leadership of Maestro Toscanini. Never have I felt the spirit of Wagner's Tannhauser Overture to such a degree. The music stole in under my skin, rippled with electric shocks along my nervous system, and left me mopping my palms with my pocket handkerchief. I wanted to rise and shout "Bravo! Encore!" along with the warmer-blooded Latins who did so. The treatment of Ravel was almost equally moving.

Why is it possible that we are so deaf to music at one time and so sensitively attuned to it at others? I believe the difference must be as much within the listener as with the players or the conductor.

Stupidity

Stupid people are my greatest worry in life, and viciously stupid ones are worst of all. This week a man with whom I have to do business set about to put something over on me; he thought that he had veiled his hand cleverly, but he was so feeble in his cerebration that his every move showed before it was made. It is a waste of time and energy to deal with vindictive and unscrupulous schemers. I should like to herd them all on a remote island where they might have every comfort and luxury and let them pass their declining years figuring ways to get the best of each other.

Vacation

It's about time that we start an argument about something. Summer resorts has always been a contentious subject among the nomadic suburbanites. The usual differences are between mountains and seashore or between New England and New Jersey. Lately we hear more about the great West and Europe.

It is my opinion that no one should travel in America till he is well traveled in Europe. My reason is that no American family has lived here longer than ten or fourteen generations and therefore we can find but little of our social background in the shifting and settling of our country. To know our own country we must know the country of our—however distant—emigration. If we come to understand the customs and attitudes of the foundation stock of that country we shall better appreciate the changes that our own development has wrought. For that reason I have always enjoyed extended visits to England, where I feel perfectly at home, and to France, Italy, Switzerland and other continental countries where much is to be learned.

it needed a boost, however.

New Sound System Wins Praise of Theatregoers

The Narberth Theatre was filled
Monday evening with one of the largest crowds since it opened. The attendance, which continued large during the week, marked the inauguration of a new policy of better entertainment by the theatre's management,
Messrs. Salasin and Fried. The new 1930 Vitaphone and Movietone Western Electric equipment and sound screen were acclaimed by the audience for giving a perfect sound performance of "Disraeli," the famed George Arlliss "talkie."

"Charming Sinners," with Ruth
Chatterton, was the feature last night.
Scheduled today and tomorrow is "The Virginian," famed talking picturization of the celebrated novel by Owen Wister, who is a resident of Bryn Mawr.
In the cast are Gary Cooper, Walter Huston, Mary Brian and Richard Arlen.

Coming Monday and Tuesday are Victor McLaglen and El Brendel, stars of "The Cock-Eyed World," in "Hot for Paris." George Bancroft's stirring drama, "The Mighty," is scheduled for next Wednesday and Thursday.

Tailors to Banquet

The second annual banquet of the Main Line Tailors and Cleaners' Association will be held at the Brookline
Square Club on Tuesday, March 11.
Guests of honor and speakers will be
Harry C. Bare, toastmaster; Hon.
Fletcher W. Stites, W. Russell Green and Hon. Judge Eugene V. Alessandroni. The committee in charge is composed of the following: Harry Mongin, chairman, Cynwyd; Joseph
Troncelliti, Bryn Mawr; Charles
Hewit, Narberth; Philip Siman, Ardmore; F. Masciangelo, Wayne; Louis
Kaplan, Ardmore, and Joseph C. Adel-izzi, Narberth.

Boy Week Chairmen

The appointment of three town
chairmen in general charge of Boy Week activities in their districts was confirmed at a meeting of the Main Line Boy Council on Tuesday night.
The Rev. A. C. Kanzinger will serve as chairman for Ardmore, Walton M.
Wentz for Narberth and Dr. Philip Bishop for Bryn Mawr. Plans are being formulated by the Council for Boy Week, which will be observed
May 3 to 10.

Variety Marks 'Talkies' Playing at The Egyptian

Variety marks The Egyptian's talking pictures this week. Today and tomorrow Clive Brook is starring in "The Return of Sherlock Holmes,"
an exciting sleuth tale based on Conan
Doyle's best, and tomorrow afternoon the beautiful and educational poem by Longfellow, "Evangeline," will be seen-heard, with Dolores Del Rio in the name part.

Next Monday and Tuesday the Cynwyd playhouse will present the comedy drama by Elliott and J. C.
Nugent, which gained popularity on the stage as "Kempy." Under its "talkie" title of "Wise Girls," the story of suburban family life has the Nugents in its cast, and also Norma
Lee and Roland Young.

"Disraeli," George Arlliss' first talking picture, which has gained tremendous popularity everywhere, will appear at The Egyptian next Wednesday. By way of variety to "Disraeli's" English drama, "Glorifying the American Girl" will be seen-heard a la Ziegfeld, next Thursday.

"Pointed Heels," with William Powell (of Philo Vance and "Four Feathers" fame) and Helen Kane (the boopoop-dee-oop girl), is scheduled for next Friday and Saturday. Also coming soon at The Egyptian is "Hot for Paris," with El Brendel and Victor McLaglen.

Building Shows Increase

Forty-four building permits were issued in Lower Merion Township during the month of February, 1930, an increase of nine over last year.
Twelve of the operations were in South Ardmore district, with the remainder scattered through the township.

Great Things Await Maroon Five If They Can Maintain Their Present Team Morale

By Robert McNally.

With Lower Merion definitely out of the Penn tournament on account of a league game which comes in the midst of tournament play, Coach William Anderson is making plans whereby his team may enter the State championships in March.

It is practically certain that the Maroon team will be invited to represent the suburban division in the State meets, and if they are allowed to accept by the school authorities they will start the first game the second week in March.

We have studied most of the strong teams in Eastern Pennsylvania this winter, and we have come to the conclusion that Bill Anderson has one of the strongest scholastic basketball teams in the United States. It took us some time to come to this conclusion, as we have considered the suburban competition to be under par this season, but we are now certain that the boys have the class and the goods.

Norristown, Lansdowne and Central have been the three teams which have offered the stiffest opposition to the Main Line team. None of these teams could push Anderson's present lineup to more than a good workout. As the suburban teams line up against each other they look good until they meet with the Maroon. Lansdowne has a first-class high school team, well above the average. So has West Chester and so did Norristown before the team was broken up through graduations. Yet when teams of this calibre line up against the momentous rush of the Main Liners they look quite ordinary.

There was a time after the middle of the season that this writer thought the Lower Merion five would crack, but they passed the stormy period without so much as a leak in the boat. The secret of it all seems to be the supreme confidence each player has in himself, and, better still, the confidence each has in his teammates.

If the Maroon does enter the State championships, they must be prepared to meet some terrific opposition. Allentown and Hazleton of the Eastern Pennsylvania League, Mahanoy City of the Anthracite League and Palmerston of the Lehigh Valley League are teams that are well trained and disciplined. They are more formidable than many better teams because they are tournament trained and can stand the long grind of tournament play better than teams which have been through situations which require many tough games over a short period of time.

The preliminary games will be played in Allentown, Easton or Philadelphia. The two teams winning in these games will go into the regional games to be played either in Wilkes-Barre or Philadelphia on March 22. The winner of this event will enter the finals on the 29th either in Pittsburgh or Philadelphia.

It will take a sturdy team to stand off the gaff of such terrific competition, but if the Lower Merion ensemble can keep a stiff upper lip and play the game as they know how to play it, they should win. On a good floor with competent officiating they will have to have a very bad off night to be defeated.

James Turner has developed into the best centre man in the suburbs. Warren Lockwood has good nights and bad nights, but he is always good for his share of points. His only weakness is his failure to utilize his teammates at certain times. If he could pass oftener he would get more opportunities to shoot in the open. Johnny Pennypacker is the most improved player in the league and to our notion stands out as the greatest all-around man in the suburbs potentially. Al Mandes is the best guard ever to wear the Maroon and White and Al D'Amora, though slow on a big floor, is a finished player and a fine shot. Alfred Bonniwell, newcomer from the city, is the most polished player of them all and is at his best when the going is most difficult. In addition to these outstanding players, Anderson has three first-class substitutes in Hughie Wynn, Henry Gane and Keith Parks.

Welfare Federation Names Representatives

The following were elected as representatives of the Welfare Federation to serve from 1930 to 1935, at the annual meeting Wednesday in the Social Service Building, Philadelphia:

Miss Constance Biddle, W. Curtis Bok, Rabbi William H. Fineshriber, Joseph Horn, Robert W. Lesley, Judge Edwin O. Lewis, the Rev. Alexander MacColl, George V. MacKinnon, W. W. Montgomery, Jr., Joshua Ash Pearson, J. Howard Pew, J. Willison Smith, Joseph N. Snellenburg, Herbert J. Tily, Alexander Van Ransselaer, Thomas Raeburn White, Dana G. How, Wayne L. Hopkins, Miss Anna B. Pratt, the Rev. Percy R. Stockman and Charles S. Pitcher.

Jay M. Kyle, campaign manager of the Welfare Federation, announced that 3.2 per cent. of the 137,320 contributors in the welfare campaign last fall gave 81.7 per cent. of the $3,358,000 fund now in hand, while 93.3 per cent. gave 13 per cent. of the money.

Jeddo-Highland Anthracite

NATURE WORKED WITH US

25,000,000 years ago the formation of the Pennsylvania Anthracite Coal beds began. The properties of these beds varied greatly—some being rich in carbon and low in waste matter; others lacking such desirable characteristics.

Nature favored Jeddo-Highland veins in this respect because no basin in the whole anthracite region contains coal with a greater natural purity. This inherent purity, coupled with the high Jeddo-Highland standard of preparation, assures heating satisfaction and economy to the greatest degree.

Junior High Loses Close One—In Tie For Lead

Lower Merion Junior High School lost a close battle to West Chester J. H. at the Armory in West Chester last Friday afternoon, 24 to 21. The Orange and Black blew two field goals and three foul shots during the last minute of play, and this inability to drop them in at a crucial moment caused their undoing.

This defeat leaves them tied for first place in the league and if the championship is decided it will necessitate a playoff.

This game was the first defeat for the local team in league competition this season. The record stands nine victories and one defeat.

The scoring during the game was rather divided among the players, Captain Harvey Shillingford leading with six points, Joe Leidy with five, Frank Talley scored five also, and Mike Ichavelli three.

If there is a playoff, it will take place some evening next week.

Mrs. Newman Describes Beauties of Glassware

The Junior Community Club held an interesting meeting on Thursday evening, February 27. Mrs. T. Somers Newman, of the Women's Club, spoke on the subject of "Glass." Mrs. Newman's power of describing the beauty of glass in its many fascinating forms filled her listeners with an enthusiasm for glassware surpassing any they had felt before. Especially interesting was the description of modern glass exhibited by all countries of the world at the Museum recently, recounted in a manner which pictured the beautiful colors and patterns of the glass most vividly.

The club accepted the resignation of Miss Mabel Kirkpatrick as program chairman, and learned of the appointment of Mrs. Ellsworth Clark to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Clark announced many interesting features planned for future meetings, and called a committee meeting of several members to discuss plans for entertainment and dramatics.

The next meeting will be Thursday, March 13, and new members are cordially invited to attend, at the club room in the rear of the fire house.

The introduction of tea in England in 1658 and later the use of coffee and chocolate furnished much work for the silversmiths. Spoons were in demand as never before, also pots, pitchers and sugar bowls. Previous to that salt cellars, tankards and cups held first place, while later punch bowls were in favor.

Pure silver, Mr. Cooper pointed out, is soft. Sterling silver means an article is 925-1000ths silver and 75-

1000ths copper. The test for silver is made by acid on silver scrapped against jasper stone. Gold is tested in the same manner.

Paul Revere, of Boston, achieved fame in his lifetime as one of the foremost silversmiths of his day. The first coins of Massachusetts were made by him as well as one of the best punch bowls in the world. In addition he was a dentist and had a powder factory at Canton as well as a bell and cannon factory. Among his "jobs" were the brass and copper work on the U. S. S. Constitution; the copper dome on the old State House in Boston, and boiler parts for Fulton's steamboat.

Mr. Cooper brought a large number of pieces of silver with him and explained after his talk marks on various pieces of silver.

Tea was served by the hostess of the day, Mrs. Edward Larney.

All members are urged to attend the institute on March 18 at 10:30 and to bring a box luncheon. Nancy Byrd Turner will read some of her own poems.

The mothers-daughters' dinner will be Thursday, March 13.

Obstetrical Service New Phase of Community Health and Civic Association's Health Work

One of the foremost activities of the Community Health and Civic Association, as the name would indicate, is the health work. The following article, which outlines the health work of the association, is drawn from the annual report of the president of that organization.

The policies of the Health Service are guided by the Health Committee, with advisory assistance from a Medical Advisory Committee. The keen interest taken in the work by the members of our Health Committee is inspiring. In April, owing to the resignation of Miss Ruth Cushman, we started with a new Director of Health Service, Miss Rose M. Ehrenfeld, formerly an assistant director of Public Health Nursing of the American Red Cross in the mid-western area. The energy and ability which have been displayed by Miss Ehrenfeld in taking hold of our work is gratefully appreciated. Her attractive personality and her ready ease in addressing local and other audiences are important factors in our friendly co-operation with all other organizations in the community. Her grasp of our problems growing largely out of her previous wide experience in similar work, is a distinct factor in our successful functioning. We recognize Miss Ehrenfeld as a distinct asset.

A valuable addition to the work previously carried on by our visiting nurses has been the inauguration of a delivery service in connection with child birth. Previously we had performed both prenatal and postpartum service, but had taken no part in assisting in the actual delivery of the child. This new service means of course that nurses must be on hand any time of the day or night to answer urgent calls. This additional service is a valuable one to the community, and the extent to which it has grown in a comparatively few months indicates that it is destined to be widely appreciated.

During the latter part of the year our Health Committee has made arrangements to administer an additional health center, or what is popularly called a Well Baby Clinic, in the Borough of Narberth. The people of Narberth witnessing how valuable these health centers activities are in other parts of our territory, have wisely contributed to a fund which pays the expenses of installing and maintaining this Narberth Health Center.

Our Health Service comprises a nursing service covering bedside care in both maternity cases, and in other cases needing a nurse's attention, and a child health supervision carried on principally through the five health centers. The Visiting Nurse staff consists of the Director, Assistant Director as Field Supervisor, and eight staff nurses. At the Child Health Centers a physician and one of the staff nurses are in attendance. The nursing service experiences a healthy and gratifying growth from year to year.

The Health Service includes many activities of a general nature, covering the proper education and morale of the nursing staff; co-operative work with other Welfare Associations in our territory and attendance at conferences of National Welfare bodies; co-operation with the Public School Systems of Lower Merion and Haverford Townships in the effort to secure 100 per cent. physical preparedness for school entrance; attendance by the Director at numerous committee and convention meetings, including discussions before Women's Clubs, Parent and Teacher Associations, visiting nurse societies, etc.; and store window displays depicting nursing service, in connection with the campaign of the Welfare Federation.

Thrills Mark Fast College Sport Here

None Hurt as Haverford Teams
Wage First Championship Combat.

ELIGIBILITY PROTESTED

(As told in the Haverford News, college weekly, issue of February 17, 1930.)

Skilled in their attack and showing a finesse that could come only from constant practice, Merion Hall's first tiddle-winks team invaded Founders last Monday night to defeat the up-campus dorms' team, 3-0, in the first of a series of challenge matches for the championship of the college.

Although the Founders team played under protest, claiming that all three Merion men were ineligible, the visitors clearly showed an all-around superiority. Their game was faster, and their handling of the tiddles in moments that counted characterized them as standing among the best proponents of the sport seen on the campus in recent years.

The playing of Captain Dempsey, of Merion, at left tiddle, was the feature of the matches. At one time, when Founders threatened to take the first match, his run of three put his squad well to the fore.

DeMott, sixteen-year-old center-tiddle of the Founders team, showed more adeptness with the tiddle-button than any other member of the squad. Captain Chadwick's and Logan's playing was sluggish.

Founders' protest, lodged before the game started, was based, Chadwick said, on the ground that all three members of the Merion team were ineligible according to scholastic requirements on which membership of other college athletic teams is based.

Merion will challenge other dormitory teams as soon as the Athletic committee decides the status of the team's members, the captain announced.

The lineup:

Merion.	Positions.	Founders.
Dempsey (c)	Left Tiddle	Logan
Saint	Center Tiddle	DeMott
Abbe	Right Tiddle	Chadwick (c)

Commission Termed Dilatory at Pencoyd Club Dinner

Criticism of the present Township Commissioners was made at the annual dinner of the Pencoyd Neighborhood Club last Monday by Toastmaster W. M. C. Edwards.

Mr. Edwards regretted that the present commissioners, since the activities of Peter C. Hess have been transferred to the tax office, have been dilatory. "When better police patrol was asked by this club recently it was thirty days before a reply, that did not mean anything, was received, he said. Last fall, when City Avenue was closed and traffic detoured by way of Glen Road, the toughest piece of road in the county, more than 8000 cars were actually counted that passed that way one fine Sunday and which made so much dust they almost choked the Eppley family living there. The reasonable request of the American Bridge Co., owners of the houses and among the largest taxpayers, for an application of oil to keep down the dust, was absolutely ignored.

Miss Elizabeth Jones Becomes Bride of Thomas Jackson on Saturday

The marriage of Miss M. Elizabeth Jones, daughter of Mrs. William J. Jones, of South Narberth Avenue, to Mr. Thomas W. Jackson, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson, of Oak Lane, took place in the Baptist Church of the Evangel on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock. The Reverend Robert E. Keighton, pastor of the Church, performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. William J. Jones, wore her going-away gown which was a princess model in eggshell crepe. She wore a hat of the same shade, and carried a bouquet of tea roses.

Miss Louise E. Jones, who was the only attendant to her sister, wore a princess model in the new print and a black hat. Her bouquet was of mixed flowers, snapdragons, sweet peas and orange flowers which matched the tones of her dress.

Mrs. Jones wore a blue crepe princess model trimmed with lace. Her bouquet was of yellow roses.

Mr. Paul Winters, of Oak Lane, served as best man, and the ushers were Mr. David Northrop, Mr. William J. Jones, Jr., brother of the bride, Mr. Richard Northrup, and Mr. John Simms Jones.

A reception followed the wedding in the alcove of the church.

After the wedding trip, Mr. Jackson and his bride will reside in Oak Lane.

Led by Ned Wilson, lanky centre, and Connie Mack, Jr., son of the Athletics' leader, Germantown Academy trounced the Friends' Central School passers at the Germantown Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday, 36-22, to carry off the basketball championship of the Interacademic League.

Joe Hartley's stars, completing their league season without a reverse, annexed the title won for the last two seasons by the Episcopal Academy outfit. Every team in the league bowed to the Germantown five, as only a single round of games was played.

Appropriate Idea, But—

To the Editor,

Our Town:

Fletcher Stites must have had his tongue in his cheek when he told us to acclaim the drink debaters at the Lower Merion School last Thursday evening, as that young man has been in enough tussles himself to recognize a good one when he comes across it.

The honest truth is the whole thing was a farce and that fact ought to be put on the record for the general benefit of the pressing problem.

Mrs. Dougherty might hit well with a woman's club, but she does not belong in a big ring. She's good to look at, and we're strong for her side, but her argument was no heavier than her pretty green dress.

Bill Roper was the forceful man of the evening, and he was stirred with a great sincerity. It appeared, however, that he was drawing altogether on personal impressions and gave no evidence of any particular study of the whole subject.

Mrs. Falmestock had nothing to say and she said it. This lady simply does not know what it is all about.

Dr. Chalfant apparently thought he was talking to his own dry friends and he did not bother at all to substantiate any of his shambling statements. Several times he got out of bounds completely, inviting severe rebukes from the numerous audience. He proved that there are other things besides liquor which can take away a man's reason.

The forum idea was excellent and the arrangement was fine. Praise is due those who staged it and it is not their fault that it was so disappointing. They had a right to expect their speakers were better than turned out to be the case. It shows you cannot always go by what the papers say.

All of which is the opinion of this one man who believes prohibition is a terrible thing, and who prays that muddled thinking will disappear from both sides, so that a sane settlement may soon be reached.

J. J. CABREY.

Flower Show March 24 at Commercial Museum

More than a million dollars' worth of flowers, plants, gardens, etc., the largest exhibit of its kind ever shown under one roof, in America, will be on display at the 1930 Annual Spring Flower Show to be held at the Commercial Museum, Thirty-fourth and Spruce Streets, March 24 to 29. Individual displays, which require from one to three years to prepare, cost, in many cases, upwards of $25,000.

In addition to the cash prizes which aggregate approximately $20,000, the show committee has authorized a special die for use in casting gold medals at the United States Mint.

Featured among the large displays this year is a collection of orchids, the most expensive flower grown, covering more than 2000 sq. feet of floor space. As usual, the roses will have a dominant place in the exhibit, with hundreds of outdoor varieties.

Officers of the Philadelphia Flower Show are James Boyd, president; John P. Habermehl, Vice-President; W. Atlee Burpee, Jr., Treasurer; B. B. Starkey, Secretary; E. J. Fancourt, Chairman.

'To Air-Minded'

Editor, "Our Town:"

To the air-minded men and women of Narberth who are thinking of taking up aviation as a business: Aviation has grown in the last five years into a billion dollar industry. "Hereby hangs a tale:" getting into aviation at this stage of its progress is similar to the person that had the foresight to grasp opportunities during the early stages of the automobile industry.

Aviation is a very technical pursuit. It must have trained men and women in order to get the desired results. A large per cent. of both men and women are taking up flying to be able to pilot their own planes, but everyone cannot become pilots.

There is only one pilot needed in a plane, except in the larger transport planes. While on the ground there are needed scores of men and women to keep that plane in the air in the proper condition.

If any of you readers have in your mind taking up aviation, or any of its numerous co-ordinating branches as a business, but you are not aware of the openings into which you may fit, as a cog in a large machine, there is a book, at this moment, resting in the Narberth Community Library, written by a very prominent man, who has been in aviation since it grew from a mere dream.

That man is Walter Hinton, the first man to pilot a seaplane across the Atlantic Ocean. In his book, "Opportunities in Aviation," he has pointed out how you can fit into aviation.

This book also tells you exactly what positions are available in the air, on the ground, and in offices, airports, in manufacturing, selling finished products, advertising in aircraft factories and airline transport companies.

It also tells how to obtain these various positions, what you must do in order to obtain the various positions desired, how to learn flying, and how to learn the business end.

A book like this can be the key to a position, a career, or even a fortune, and no man now in business or going into business can afford to miss it. (F. B. T.)

Plans Rummage Sale

In order to help relieve the situation created during the winter in many families by unemployment and illness, the Main Line Federation of Churches will hold a rummage sale in the store at the corner of Lancaster Avenue and Rittenhouse Place, Ardmore, on Wednesday, March 19.

The Federation requests that contributions of clothing and household articles be brought there on Monday, March 17. The sale will not only directly aid the Federation but will give many persons an opportunity to provide themselves with necessities that they could not otherwise afford.
